GENERAL REMARKS.

Revenue stamps may be used indiscriminately, except proprietary and playing card stamps. Postage Stamps cannot be used in payment of stamp duties.

It is the duty of the maker of an instrument to affix and cancel the stamp required thereon. If he neglects to do so, the party for whose use it is made may stamp it before it is used; but in no case can it be legally used without a stamp.

When two or more persons join in the execution of an instrument, the stamp to which the instrument is liable under the law may be affixed and cancelled by either of them.

No stamp is required on any warrant of attorney accompanying a bond or note, when such bond or note has affixed thereto the stamp or stamps denoting the duty required; and whenever any bond or note is secured by mortgage, but one stamp duty is required on such papers, such stamp duty being the highest rate required for such instruments, or either of them. In such case, a note or memorandum of the value or denomination of the stamp affixed should be made upon the margin or in the acknowledgement of the instrument which is not stamped.

Where more than one signature is affixed to the same paper, the required duty may be paid by one stamp.

Penalties for violation of these Stamp Duties are enforced as the law directs

JANUARY WEDNESDAY, 1 1868.

A wet dreary sleety snowy day. Left Alfred's where I came from school the night before, to go to Mr. Smalley's to bring our dear Charlie. Everything reminds me George. My heart lashed with its load. "It will be done."

THURSDAY, 2

FRIDAY, 3

Pleasant day but very bad walking. At school all day. Mr. Tenney called at my school.

JANUARY SATURDAY, 4 1868.

Hall. Camilla Mrs. Elayed. John Alfred, Cordie, Mr. and Amanda did. Very pleasant moonlight called. Mary came up to spend the night.

SATURDAY, 28

Very pleasant day. Bridie and Eldence and Eva came over in the forenoon. Father and Mrs. B came in the noon train.
I left at 3 for Bridgewater going to Maria's. Found her glad to see me. She seems very happy.

NOVEMBER

SUNDAY, 29

1868.

Rainy in the early morning. But cleared thro the day and sunset very pleasant. Church service all day. Mr. Walker preached. Very good especially in the morning. Dined at Papa's. Rode up to Capt. Barrett's after church for a letter from Ned and then wrote me to Kira's. MONDAY, 30

Rather a dull day. I did not feel at all well. Did not go out anywhere for the day. Did but very little sewing, but had a nice day with Kira.

DECEMBER

TUESDAY, 1

Woke in the morning and found it snowing. Not pleasant for the day; snowing lightly by spells. Had another quiet day with Kira. Did some sewing and felt better than yesterday. Home in the evening.

DECEMBER WEDNESDAY, 2

1868.

Very bright and pleasant. Called on Callie, Mrs. Boyden and Mrs. Reich. On my way back went into "the Hall". Visited Mr. Bandier's. Walked awhile with her. Then went up to Kira's to tea. Spent the evening there.

THURSDAY, 3

Very pleasant. Made Christian call; then went up to Capt. Barrett's. Lou Collett there. In the afternoon we all went to Greaves with the Stetsons to tea. In the evening heard Rev. Mr. Walker at the Town Hall on the "Hornet Question."

FRIDAY, 4

Another pleasant day. The Stetsons came up to tea. Patrick carried me up to Kira's after tea. Quite cloudy. Had a very pleasant but very short visit.

DECEMBER SATURDAY, 5 1868

Phasant but doubtful. By ten o'clock snowing, by five a hard quiet snow storm. Spent the forenoon at Christian's. 4.00
Started for Milton at 12.35. Train 2 1/2 hours late. Finally at nine brought up in P. Boston. Cordially received. Mr. ^{SUNDAY, 6} secret.

Quite pleasant after the storm.
At church and P. School. Dr.
Alden preached all day. Very good. The morning storm was from Mr. Halk's death. In the afternoon on Elijah. Cloudy at night as I left in the 10 o'clock
car. Too late for meeting.

MONDAY, 7

Snow and by night an early rain storm. Began school again; sixty two scholars. Rather a hard day. Spent a quiet evening at home, arranging matters for coming to New Haven and Will's yesterday.

DECEMBER TUESDAY, 8 1868.

Cold and winterish. School has gone better but still hard.
Spent the evening with Annie Durell. Mrs. Chapman and Mary Swift called. Overtook her at Mrs. Kendall's and then we walked home together. WEDNESDAY, 9

Night and pleasant but very cold and windy. School rather hard. After tea spent to Mrs. Office and then spent an hour with Abby Mosher who sails for Europe on Friday. Made Warren a call.

THURSDAY, 10

Pleasant. Not so uncomfortable. Less wind. School easier.
Went to A. Durell's before meeting.
Quite a good one, tho not many there. Ges. 4th chapter was the subject for the evening. Prayer

DECEMBER FRIDAY, 11 1868.

Still pleasant but clouding for snow. School pretty quiet as Angie came up to tea. About twilight, went over to Annie's for an hour, then came home, and wrote to Amanda.
The evening dark and cloudy.

SATURDAY, 12

SATURDAY, 12

Pleasant day. Went in at 8.
 Did come upstairs; then went to Uncle Ben's. Didn't see Figgis.
 Dined at Alfred's. Aunt Rachel there; the rest at home. Came on to Palmer's & Bachelders and to Figgis wedding present; then came out in a Sunday 19. No other

SUNDAY, 19

1843
 1. A large number of people called at the pleasant day. The church and school all day. Mr. Perkins in a sermon. Pains preached.
 Very good. The Lord the Lord

Biennial Convention at Bridgewater. The business meeting at Normal Hall full and interesting. The unveiling of the tablet very sad and tender. Mr. Walton presented it to the school and Mr. Boyden received it. In his remarks he spoke of circumstances connected with each one of the names engraved on it. A band of noble hearts whose lives were freely given to their country's service. It was trying to me because my heart still clings to my precious one. Why did I love him so, when I knew it was impossible that we should be more than friends. But I may love him now; dear one now he is dead and Dorchester Lower Mills.

This quiet village was the scene of a service of unusual interest yesterday, attending the ordination of a pastor over the Orthodox, or "Village Church." Notwithstanding the unfavorable weather, a very large and interested congregation were present, and the church was most tastefully decorated with flowers, scattered profusely upon the pulpit, organ and choir gallery. The sermon by Prof. Park of Andover was an able and impressive discourse upon the power of conscience, showing the activity, tenacity and authority of the moral faculties, the remarkable power of memory, the constant conflict between the inward monitor of duty and the wayward will, the enduring nature of the decisions of the moral sense, and the eventual character of that day when not only the body, but every act of the moral nature will rise in resurrection with new vigor.

He illustrated forcibly the connection between and the influence which conscience exerts upon the doctrinal beliefs of men; showing the tenacity with which its teachings cling to the minds even of infidels, forcing them to tremble in the moment of bodily weakness or of danger; and warning his hearers that though the truth may be buried far down in the depths of unbelief, it will send up mysterious and awful sounds, compelling the soul's unwilling attention, and in some hour of calamity, or in the hour of death, will re-ascend its dishonored throne, and assert with new power and majesty its original dominion.

With a beautiful and touching allusion to the one only exception to this law, who, though possessed of an absolutely pure life and the most vigorous conscience that ever existed, yet failed to receive the consolation and peace which was rightfully his, and at last cried, "It is finished," and gave up the ghost, that our consciences and lives might be lifted up and blessed in His stead—the sermon closed.

The charge to the pastor by Rev. J. H. Means and the address to the people by Rev. F. T. Munger of Haverhill, a former pastor of this church, were each interesting and appropriate, as was also the giving of the "fellowship of the churches" by Rev. W. H. Savage.

A distinguishing feature of the service was the fine music furnished by the choir of the church, who were evidently an enthusiastic and well trained body of singers. The opening anthem, "The Lord is my Shepherd," consisting of a tenor solo and chorus, each carefully rendered, and a magnificent "Benedictus and Gloria," closing with a fugue movement, which was done with the greatest accuracy and with splendid effect, constituted, beside the hymns, the musical services; they evinced a degree of care and good taste in the performance that would have done credit to many of our city churches.

The new pastor, Rev. H. M. Tenney, has been supplying the pulpit for a year past with great acceptance to the people, and is a gentleman of fine mind and thorough culture. He is a writer and thinker of great clearness and force, and it is not hazardous to predict, will prove one of the lights of the Congregational pulpit.

I spent the day at Mr. Vacci's. Feeling very cold and indisposed to religious subjects for one who looks the case and is a Quaker. Went to S. School. Not drawing anything to do for the life of the Conference from the papers. Read considerable in it thro the day and my Heavenly Father has blessed it to me, quickening me to higher and holier desires. Showing me where I have erred. He showed me in their lives that the Christian should be constantly prayerful and humble. Oh that I may see my sin and truly repent of it. May I be quick and ready in heart finding rest to my soul.

DR. JOURDAIN.

Wednesday Oct 21st

Our dear Mr. Tenner was ordained to-day. I was at the Council three quarters of an hour. He stood his examination well. The afternoon exercises very interesting. Beginning with the anthem, "The Lord is my Shepherd", Willie Dyer sang two do-los. Chorus good. Mr. Hurlbell delivered the invocation, Mr. Carter read the Scriptures, Mr. Williams, Seide, having previously read the doings of the Council. We then sang "How beautiful are their feet" Lane Hymn, manuscript. Mrs. Webster & W. J. Dyer duet, Mrs. H and I duet. Then came the sermon, Rom 2nd 14th & 15th Conscience, by Prof. Park. Forty minutes long but I could have sat forty more. Very in-interesting and instructive.

like every thing Mrs. Kearsdoe, full of power and beauty.
The fellowship of the churches pretty good. Mr. Savage not speaking clearly, made him hard to be understood. His remarks however were good.
Mr. Kewinger's charge to the people
very good - quite flattering.
The next hymn we sang to "Thine home" in the "Kadosia Cacia".
Mr. Teale offered the concluding prayer. The exercises closed with the benediction by "our pastor"
"Our Father" bless his servants.
